

ALEWINES
AND ALAWINES

October 2, 1994

WHAT THIS IS AND HOW TO USE IT

On the occasion of this 1994 family reunion I thought it appropriate to share with you some of the stuff I have about the family. Not all of it yet, but enough to let you see why we came to be so numerous. And also why some of us are ALEWINES and others are ALAWINES when we all started as "GENEWYNS".

The first 22 pages is a very brief outline and summary of what may require 300 pages or more in the published family history. Generally, it covers only the first two or three generations of each branch of the family. There are some abbreviations, like:

b = born
ca = approximate date, when exact date is unavailable
M = Male
F = Female

One problem with families is that they want to give everybody the same name. Among the Alewines and Alawines more than 50 were named James, and almost that many Johns and Marys. It can be confusing when you are discussing several people with the same name unless you have some way of distinguishing them from one another. Genealogists usually follow the method used by Social Security, the military, banks, and others by assigning numbers to each person. The number used here consists of the year of birth (estimated year if exact year is not known) followed by a dash (-) and a 2-digit number, ranging from 01 through 99. If, for example, we have 40 people born in 1937, their numbers would be 1937-01, 1937-02, 1937-03.... and on through 1937-40. They are called CN's (Chronological Numbers)

Family histories usually start with the earliest known ancestor, then his children, each of his children's children, etc. If you want to find where you fit in you have to wade through all this stuff. If you want to take a short cut, welcome to the "Family Finder Index." (see pages 23-55)

It is arranged in CN order, from the earliest year up to the latest. Look at it, and you can see how it is set up.

Let's try an example.

Suppose your grandfather's name is Coyt Thaggard. Take a sheet of paper (preferably blank) and write your name across the bottom of it, your father or mother's name directly above yours, and Coyt's name above the name of your parent. You don't know exactly when Coyt was born but figure it was sometime between 1915 and 1925. Now go to the part of the Family Finder Index covering that period and you should find him without much difficulty on page 54

1920-08 Thaggard, Coyt M 1878-09 William I. 1923-05 Kathryn Callahan

Next look for 1878-09 William I. Thaggard on the list, and you find on page 43

1878-09 Thaggard, William M 1850-07 John M. 1882-01 Kate Alawine

Since you are tracing the Alawine ancestry rather than the Thaggard, write immediately above Coyt's name the name of his mother Kate Alawine.

Now check the list and find on Page 45

1882-01 Alawine, Kate F 1845-01 Andrew J. 1878-09 William I. Thaggard

Keep following this process, and your sheet of names will look like this:

1710-01 John George Alewine
1738-01 Michael Alewine
1762-01 John Alewine
1792-01 Elijah Alawine
1820-06 William R. Alawine
1845-01 Andrew J. Alawine
1882-01 Kate Alawine Thaggard
1920-08 Coyt Thaggard
(Your parent's name)
(Your name)

There's your line from the immigrant ancestor down to you.

The Family Finder Index has about 925 names or about one fourth of all the names in the complete study. It has almost all the Alewines born before 1890, but very few born after that date. If you know of an Alawine or Alewine ancestor born before 1890, chances are you can find him in this Index and trace his ancestry back

This has many errors, but I am running out of time, so please excuse them

Would appreciate any comments, suggestions, criticisms, or outbursts of rage that you may care to make.

Thank you.

PART I

IN THE BEGINNING

It has been almost 250 years since John George Alewine came to the colony of South Carolina with his wife (whose name is not known) and three children: Catherine, age 18; Michael, 14; and Adam, 10. They came on a ship Rowand which sailed from Rotterdam and arrived in Charles Town (Charleston) 2 October 1752. The passengers on the Rowand were all Germans who had come to South Carolina in response to an offer of free land and a supply of food and other necessities sufficient to last until land could be cleared and crops grown and harvested. They settled in an area known as the Dutch Fork, extending from about the present city of Newberry in an easterly direction to the point where the Broad and Saluda rivers converge near the present city of Columbia. Lying in the fork of two rivers, the land probably was quite fertile.

The settlement of the Dutch Fork began about 1745, but for the first few years the number of settlers was relatively small. During 1752 and 1753 more than 3,000 settlers arrived in this area. Most of them came from the Black Forest area of Germany, although the Alewines probably came from Alsace, an area on the French side of the Rhine River populated with German-speaking people. They were principally descendants of ancient German tribesmen known as Alemanni (or Alamanni) who were engaging in combat with the Romans as early as 300 A. D.

For half a century the Dutch Fork settlers had little contact with their English-speaking neighbors. They continued the traditions and culture of their native Germany, attended German churches and sent their children to German schools (where schools were accessible). One historian said that probably not a word of English was spoken in the Dutch Fork before the year 1800.

The children of John George Alewine were:

1734-01 Catherine Alewine	born 1734, probably Alsace
1738-01 Michael Alewine	born 1738, probably Alsace
1744-01 Adam Alewine	born 1744, probably Alsace
1753-01 George Alewine	born ca 1753, South Carolina

When John George Alewine applied for a land grant the names of his children were listed, since the amount of land an individual could receive depended on the size of his family. He received 250 acres -- 100 acres plus 50 acres for each child. The application is the only record found of the daughter Catherine, so it is not known whether she married and had children. There is evidence that the two younger sons never married. The oldest son Michael did marry and raise a family, thereby beginning an endless chain of Alewines and Alawines, and providing us with ancestors to write about.

Other passengers on the ship Rowand included John George Risinger, his wife, son and twin daughters. One of the daughters, 1743-01 Mary Risinger, became the wife of Michael. They had at least seven children, including:

1760-01 George Alewine	M	born ca 1760
1761-01 Katherine Alewine	F	born 24 March 1761
1762-01 John Alewine	M	born ca 1762
1773-01 Christinen Alewine	F	born ca 1773
1774-02 Thomas Alewine	M	born ca 1774
1776-01 Jacob Alewine	M	born ca 1776
1777-01 Michael Alewine	M	born ca 1777

John George died about 1770. He did not leave a will and, in accordance with the laws of inheritance then in effect, the land went to his oldest son Michael. When Michael died about ten years later, the land went to his oldest son George. It is supposed that George shared some of it with his brothers since they all seemed to own part of it during the 1790's. Thomas bought most of the land from his brothers and kept it until his death in 1856.

Neither of Michael's daughters ever married. Katherine died 23 March 1847, the day before her 86th birthday. Christinen died 17 November 1857, also at about the age of 86.

1760-01 George Alewine married 1764-01 Catherine _____, whose maiden name is not known. Catherine died during the 1820's and George died between 1830 and 1840. George and Catherine had 5 sons and several daughters, including:

1788-01 Joseph Alewine	M	born ca 1788
1792-02 Henry Alewine	M	born ca 1792
1795-02 George Alewine	M	born ca 1795
1798-06 Milly Alewine	F	born ca 1798
1800-01 Eli Alewine	M	born ca 1800
1802-04 James Alewine	M	born ca 1802

1762-01 John Alewine married 1764-01 Catherine "Caty" _____ and after her death about 1805 he married another younger woman, also named Catherine (1786-01). John died in 1809 or early 1810. He was the only Alewine who is known to have served in the military during the American Revolution. John and his first wife had six sons and two or three daughters, including:

1780-01 David Alewine	M	born ca 1780
1783-01 John Alewine	M	born ca 1783
1787-01 George Alewine	M	born ca 1787
1792-01 Elijah Alewine	M	born ca 1792
1793-01 Daniel Alewine	M	born 10 February 1793
1797-01 Mary Alewine	F	born ca 1797
1805-01 Reubin Alewine	M	born 20 October 1805

There was another daughter, Rebecca, whose date of birth is not known.

Soon after John's death his widow Catherine and two sons, John and George moved to Lexington County. The oldest son David and the younger sons, Elijah, Daniel, and Reubin, moved to Jasper County, Georgia.
These were the first Alewines known to have moved away from Newberry County.

1774-01 Thomas Alewine and his wife (name unknown) had two sons and three daughters:

1798-01 Jane Alewine	F	born ca 1798
1802-05 Elisha Alewine	M	born ca 1802
1815-12 William H. Alewine	M	born 9 October 1815

1819-01 Dorothy Alewine F born ca 1819
1824-06 Caroline Alewine F born ca 1824

Thomas lived on the land that had been granted to his grandfather in 1753. He died in 1856 at the age of about 82.

1776-01 Jacob Alewine married 1774-02 Margaret _____ and they had three sons and four daughters:

1794-01 Isaac Alewine M born ca 1794
1796-01 Nancy Alewine F born ca 1796
1797-03 Delilah Alewine F born ca 1797
1798-04 Philip Alewine M born ca 1798
1801-02 Susannah Alewine F born ca 1808
1809-03 David Alewine M born ca 1809
1810-01 Margaret E. Alewine F born ca 1810

Jacob's wife Margaret died in the 1820's. About 1835 Jacob moved to Marshall County, Alabama where he married 1805-04 Elizabeth Hicks. He died after 1840.

1777-01 Michael Alewine, the youngest son of 1738-01 Michael, married 1775-01 Elizabeth Keller. They had 4 or 5 sons, including:
1795-01 Abraham Alewine M born ca 1795
1797-01 Ephraim Alewine M born ca 1797
1808-01 Jacob Alewine M born 26 December 1808
1811-01 Michael Alewine M, born 8 July 1811

There may have been another son named Esau and several daughters whose names are not known. Michael died about 1815 and his widow Elizabeth and the children moved to Abbeville County, S. C.

This concludes a brief summary (scarcely more than a listing of names) of the first three generations of Alewines in America: the children of the immigrant John George Alewine; the children of his son Michaw1; and a listing of Michael's grandchildren. It is anticipated that the book will devote a chapter to each grandson and his descendants.

PART II

DESCENDANTS OF 1760-01 GEORGE ALEWINE.

Chapter 5 - 1788-01 Joseph Alewine and his Descendants
Chapter 6 - 1792-02 Henry Alewine and his Descendants
Chapter 7 - 1795-02 George Alewine and his Descendants
(Note 1) - 1798-06 Milly Alewine Adams and her Descendants
Chapter 8 - 1800-01 Eli Alewine and his Descendants.
Chapter 9 - 1802-04 James Alewine and his Descendants

NOTE 1: 1798-06 Milly Alewine married Henry Adams (b. ca 1793) and their lineage has been traced down to a great-great granddaughter, Emily Cromer Sitnik (b. 3 Nov 1942).

Chapter 5 - 1788-01 Joseph Alewine and his Descendants

Joseph Alewine was born about 1788, the oldest son of 1760-01 George.
He married 1798-02 Rebecca _____ and they had four children:

1818-02 Thomas H. Alewine	M	b. 15 Mar 1818
1826-01 George Alewine	M	b. ca 1826
1833-03 Nancy Alewine	F	b. ca 1833
1839-04 Laura Ann Alewine	F	b. 12-Mar 1839

Almost all the Alewines and others living in the Dutch Fork were farmers. Two exceptions were Joseph and his brother Eli, who were millers. Sometime between 1840 and 1850 they moved to Greenville County, S. C. After Joseph's death 26 February 1856, his son George continued to operate the milling business.

1818-02 Thomas H. Alewine, Joseph's oldest son, did not move to Greenville County with his father and the other family members, but remained in Newberry County. He married 1832-02 Margaret Eve Cannon in November 1846. They had six children:

1847-03 James Hanibal Alewine	M	b. 10 Oct 1847
1849-05 Marion Alewine	M	b. ca 1849
1851-04 Isabella Alewine	F	b. 2 Apr 1851
1852-02 Walter F. Alewine	M	b. 9 Jul 1852
1855-01 Ann Cornelia Alewine	F	b. 5 Jun 1855
1857-05 George Thomas Alewine	M	b. 2 Apr 1857

After Margaret Eve's death 9 November 1863, Thomas H. married

1845-02 Nancy Cromer. They had six more children:

1866-07 William A. Alewine	M	b. 19 May 1866
1869-14 Ada Alewine	F	b. ca 1869
1870-17 Lizzie Alewine	F	b. ca 1870
1878-16 Daisy Lulu Alewine	F	b. 16 Aug 1878
1879-09 Clifford Alewine	M	b. ca 1879
1885-03 Forrest Alewine	M	b. ca 1885

Thomas died 28 February 1889 and Nancy died 8 May 1895. Thomas and his oldest son James Hahibal both served in the Confederate military forces.

1826-01 George Alewine, Joseph's second son, married 1837-10 Mary Brown, and they had four children:

1859-06 Joseph E. Alewine	M	b. 5 Mar 1859
1862-08 Rose Alewine	F	b. ca 1862
1866-01 James Henry Alewine	M	b. 22 Aug 1866
1872-11 William T. Alewine	M	b. 18 Apr 1872

George died in 1872 and his wife Mary may have died about the same time. A grandson, Walter F. Alewine, remembered that his father, 1866-01 James Henry had spent his childhood in the home of an aunt and uncle in Lexington County. The 1880 census records show that he was living in the home of Laura (his father's sister) and her husband Thomas Drayton Miller in 1880.

The size and diversity of George's milling operation is not known, but a typical water wheel would be used for operating a grist mill, cotton gin, and saw mill all at the same site. When steam replaced water as the source of power, it is likely that the operation would continue at the same location since a steam engine also required a plentiful supply of water.

TAYLORS (GREENVILLE COUNTY), S.C.
Whether the Taylors Lumber Company was an outgrowth of the milling operations of George and his father Joseph is not known. It was owned and operated by George's grandsons, sons of 1866-01 James Henry Alewine. The youngest, 1903-03 Walter F. Alewine, was president of the company until his retirement a few years before his death in 1992.

1839-06 Laura Ann Alewine, Joseph's daughter, married 1832-03 Thomas Drayton Miller, who was born 23 August 1832. He was the son of John B. Miller whose sister Mary married Henry Alewine, brother of Laura's father Joseph. Laura and Thomas Drayton lived in Lexington County, S. C. He died 25 November 1896 and she died 8 August 1905. They had one child, a daughter Arabella "Belle" Miller, born 6 July 1861 and died 5 June 1943. She and her parents are buried in the Concord Baptist Church cemetery near Leesville (Lexington County).

Chapter 6 -- 1792-02 Henry Alewine and his Descendants

Henry Alewine, the second son of 1760-01 George, married 1800-03 Mary Miller, daughter of Jacob Miller and Nancy Oxner Miller. Their children were:

1824-01 William Lang Alewine	M	b.	5 Mar 1824
1825-03 Philip Alewine	M	b.	ca 1825

Henry died about September 1830, about four months before the birth of his youngest child, Henry G. W. Mary died 16 January 1873.

William Lang Alewine married 1832-01 Eve Margaret Lee, daughter of Jarrett and Mary Setzler Lee. They moved to Winston County, Mississippi about 1855 along with several other families from Newberry County. Most of them may have been members of the Beth Eden Lutheran church in Newberry County, for they built a church in Winston County which they named Betheden.

William Lang was a carpenter and a farmer. He served in the Confederate Army (20th Miss. Infantry). He died 7 March 1901 and Margaret died 16 November 1913. Their children were:

1911-11	F. Claude Alewine	M	b.	Nov 1911

William Lang's youngest son, 1875-04 George Moody Alewine, married 1885-09 Leatha Bell Priscock, and their children were:

Chapter 7 -- George Alewine and his Descendants

1795-02 George Alewine, son of 1760-01 George, married 1800-05

Susan _____, and they had two sons:

1815-11	Mathias Alewine	M	b.	1 Dec 1815
1820-03 Ephraim Alewine	M b. ca 1820
1833-02	Joseph Alewine	M	b.	ca 1833

George moved to Abbeville County, S. C., by 1840. In 1860 he and Susan were living in the home of their son Mathias in ABBEVILLE County, probably near ~~the~~ ^{1/4}.

Mathias, whose name sometimes appears as Mathis or Matthew, married 1825-01 Elizabeth _____, and they had eight children:

1847-07	Susannah Alewine	F	b.	ca 1847
1849-08	George Loyd Alewine	M	b. 21 Mar	1849
1851-03	James Calvin Alewine	M	b. 13 May	1851

Mathias died 3 January 1884 and Elizabeth died 15 June 1906. They were buried in the Little River Baptist Church cemetery.

Chapter 8 -- 1800-01 Eli Alewine and his Descendants

Eli Alewine, son of 1760-01 George, is believed to have married a widow, 1800-07 Frances Kelly, between 1825 and 1830. She may have died during the 1830's and by 1840 Eli was married to 1813-01 Marcella Ruff. Eli probably was a ~~partner~~ ^{partner} with his older brother Joseph in the operation of a mill. They moved to Greenville County probably in the late 1840's and Eli died there about 1849.

Eli and Marcella had six children:

1837-06	James Alewine	M	b.	ca 1837
1840-05	William Alewine	M	b.	ca 1840
1842-08	Thomas Preston Alewine	M	b.	ca 1842
1845-06	Mary Alewine	F	b.	ca 1845
1846-03	Marcella Alewine	F	b.	ca 1846
1849-01	Caroline Alewine	F	b.	ca 1849

By 1860 Marcella and her family had moved to Polk County, North Carolin where she married Eli Carney. All three of Eli's sons served in the Confederate Army, but only Thomas Preston survived. James was wounded 26 June 1862 and died two days later in a hospital at Richmond. William was killed at Fredericksburg, Virginia 13 December 1862.

Thomas Preston Alewine married 1825-09 Margaret Littlejohn in 1876. He was about 34 years old at that time and she was over 50. After her death he married (20 August 1893) 1874-27 Leoline Johnson. They had three children:

1894-17	Richard Eli Alewine	M	b.	6 Nov 1894
1898-04	Oscar Alewine	M	b.	3 Nov 1898
1900-14	Amanda "Syble" Alewine	F	b.	ca 1900

Thomas Preston died 13 September 1928 and Leoline died 11 January 1962. Both were buried in the Tryon Cemetery, Tryon (Polk County), N. C.

Chapter 9 -- 1802-04 James Alewine and his Descendants

Not much is known about James, the youngest son of 1760-01 George Alewine. He was still living in Newberry County during the 1820's, but by 1840 he was married and living in Anderson County, S. C. The name of his wife is not known. Two children were born of their marriage:

1842-07	George Alewine	M	b.	ca 1842
1847-04	James Martin Alewine	M	b.	25 May 1847

The wife died either in childbirth or soon after the birth of James Martin. The father took the two children to Georgia and left them with a friend. The children never saw him again and never knew what happened to him.

James Martin Alewine must have returned to South Carolina prior to the Civil War, for he served in the 14th South Carolina Battalion (Infantry). After the war he moved to Arkansas with a Wilson family and by 1870 they were living near the White River. He married 1851-10 Mary Catherine Phillips 31 January 1871. They had one child:

1871-03	Minnie May Alewine	F	b.	30 Nov 1871
---------	--------------------	---	----	-------------

Mary Catherine died soon after the child was born and James Martin married Nancy Wilson 27 November 1872. They had two children:

1873-01	Beulah E. Alewine	F	b.	4 November 1873
1875-02	Ernest Desmond Alewine	M	b.	25 Jun 1875

Nancy died about 1879 and James Martin married 1858-08 Martha Adeline Jones. They had seven children:

1881-07	Ralph Wilson Alewine	M	b.	4 Dec 1881
1884-08	Vincent Alewine	M	b.	1 Apr 1884

1886-05 Nina Gertrude Alewine F b. 17 Nov 1886
1889-06 Homer Otis Alewine M b. 8 May 1889
1892-02 Inez Alewine F b. 15 Mar 1892
1895-09 Clovis K. Alewine M b. 19 Sep 1895
1898-12 Aubrey G. Alewine M b. 31 Oct 1898

James Martin Alewine and his family lived at several different locations in Arkansas and in 1896 moved to Rockstar, Texas and the next year to Mayhew, Oklahoma Indian Territory. His wife Martha died in Mayhew 4 February 1904. In 1910 James Martin moved to Boswell, Oklahoma where he married Eliza Warren 12 November 1911. Chapter 11 -- 1783-01 John Alewine and his Descendants
Chapter 12 -- 1787-01 George Alewine and his Descendants

Chapter 14 -- 1793-01 Daniel Alewine and his Descendants
Chapter 15 -- 1805-01 Reubin Alewine and his Descendants

NOTE: In addition to the sons who are the subjects of Chapters 10 through 15, John had at least two daughters: Rebecca, who married Thomas Durrett; and Mary who married Elijah Taylor.

Chapter 10 -- 1780-01 David Alewine and his Descendants

David, the oldest son of 1762-01 John Alewine, was also the first known grandchild of Michael and great-grandchild of John George Alewine. The name of David's first wife is not known. They had several daughters, but only the name of one is known:

1806-05 Sarah Alewine F b. ca 1806

David served in the War of 1812, enlisting at Newberry. In 1820 he was living in Jasper County, Georgia, with his two younger brothers, Daniel and Reubin. His first wife had died, and on 3 June 1821 he married 1785-02 Nancy Williams. They may have had a son and several daughters, but their names have not been found. In 1850 David and Nancy were living in Marion County, Georgia.

David's daughter 1806-05 Sarah married 1805-03 Micajah Buchanan 13 September 1829 in Jasper County, Georgia. They had at least five children:

1833-08	George Buchanan	M	b.	ca 1833
1835-06	David (?) Buchanan	M	b.	ca 1835
1838-05	Josephus Buchanan	M	b.	ca 1838
1840-04	Joseph Buchanan	M	b.	ca 1840
1842-03	Martha Buchanan	F	b.	ca 1842

At the time of the 1850 census, Micajah and Sarah were living in Sumter County, Georgia with their children.

Chapter 11 -- 1783-01 John Alewine and his Descendants

1783-01 John Alewine married about 1812, but the name of his wife is not known. His father died about 1810, and he moved to Lexington County soon afterwards, but he may have married before leaving Newberry County. He had at least three children:

1813-04	Isaac Alewine	M	b.	ca 1813
1815-01	David Alewine	M	b.	ca 1815
1817-01	Catherine Alewine	F	b.	ca 1817

John's wife died before the 1850 census, which shows him living in Lexington County with his daughter Catherine and aunt 1773-01Christinen (his father's sister). Also living nearby were his son Isaac, his brother George, and cousins Isaac and Phillip Alewine (sons of his uncle, Jacob). It is assumed that John died during the 1850's since no record of him was found in the 1860 census.

1813-04 Isaac Alewine, John's oldest son, married 1814-03 Celia Mahala Oxner. Their children were:

1837-05	Georganna Alewine	F	b.	ca 1837
1839-01	James Attaway Alewine	M	b.	27 Nov 1839
1842-04	Henry R. Alewine	M	b.	ca 1842

Isaac died 21 June 1898, leaving a will ~~which~~ directing that all his property go to his daughter Georganna, who had never married. Isaac's wife had died earlier.

Isaac may have had other children.

According to the 1850 census records, a young girl, Miranda Son, was living in Isaac's home. Her age was shown as 17, but later records indicate that she was about 15 at that time. She is believed to have been the daughter of Isaac's neighbor, Andrew Son. Another daughter, Emily, married Isaac's son Henry, but that was much later. Henry was only 8 years old in 1850.

In any event, Miranda Son continued to live in Isaac's home until his death in 1898 and was living with Isaac's daughter Georgeanna in 1900. During that period of about 50 years, Miranda had three children:

Polly S. Son	F	b.	ca 1855
Edward Son	M	b.	ca 1866
Dixon Son	M	b.	ca 1870

Was Isaac the father of these children?

Sometime during the 1890's Dixon Son was said to have gone to Georgia with a girl named Laura and changed his name to Richard Alewine, claiming that Isaac was his father. This is confirmed by census records which show R. Alewine and wife Laura living in Richmond County in 1900 and Richard Alewine and wife Laura living in Fulton County (near Atlanta) in 1920

1815-01 David Alewine, second son of 1783-01 John, married Mary Ann "Polly" _____. Their children were:

1866-05 Catherine Alewine	F	b.	ca 1866
1871-12 John Alewine	M	b.	ca 1871
1872-11 Mary Alewine	F	b.	ca 1872
1877-12 Ervin Alewine	M	b.	ca 1877

David died 20 June 1885, and Mary Ann died in 1897.

The children may have all died young (before 1885), since none of them are included in a list of David's next of kin in the estate papers. Shown as his next of kin were is wife Mary Ann, sister Catherine, and brother Isaac.

John's daughter 1817-01 Catherine never married. In 1900 she was living alone in Lexington County, age 83. On her census record was the census-taker's sad comment "Kept up by charity."

Chapter 12--1787-01 George Alewine and his Descendants

George Alewine, son of 1762-01 John, married 1790-01 Luckey _____.

He moved from Newberry to Lexington County soon after the death of his father. George and Luckey had several children, including:

1813-06 Daniel Alewine	M	b. 17 Feb 1813

1816-02 Dicey Lee Alewine	F	b. ca 1816
1825-07 Kate Alewine	F	b. ca 1825

Luckey died between 1850 and 1860, and George died after 1860.

1849. He was about 36 and she was about 52 at the time of their marriage.

They had one child:

1850-16 Henry F. Alewine	M	b. ca 1850
--------------------------	---	------------

Daniel served in the Civil War and soon after the war the family moved to Tennessee. Mary Ann died in 1905 at the age of 107 and Daniel died 16 February 1907, the day before his 94th birthday.

1816-02 Dicey Lee Alewine married 1804-05 Ellis Waters. Their children were:

1835-10 Sarah Waters	F	b. ca 1835

1845-13 Harriet Waters	F	b. ca 1845
1849-07 James Waters	M	b. 6 Jan 1849

Chapter 13 -- Elijah Alewine / Alawine and his Descendants

1792-01 Elijah Alewine was the fourth son of 1762-01 John. After his father died (about 1810) Elijah moved to Jasper County, Georgia with his older brother David and younger brothers, Daniel and Reubin. He married 1802-03 Amy Richards about 1819. In 1830 he was living in Talbot County, Georgia, and by 1839 had moved to Fayette County, Alabama. It was on church records in Fayette County that his name first appears with the spelling "ALAWINE." Since that time, he and his descendants have been Alawines.

Elijah and Amy had four children:

1820-06 William R. Alawine	M	b.	ca 1820.	Georgia

The family moved from Fayette County, Alabama, to Mississippi in 1842, settling first in Leake County, then Yazoo County, and finally in Attala County. Amy died 8 December 1866 in Attala County and Elijah died about three years later in September, 1869.

1820-06 William R. Alawine married Esther "Hettie" _____, who was born in Florida about 1823. They had five children:

Chapter 14 -- Chapter 14 -- 1793-01 Daniel Alewine and his Descendants

Like the other Alewines of his generation, Daniel spent his early years in Newberry County. He served in the War of 1812 with Nash's Regiment, S. C. Volunteers. He enlisted 20 January 1814 at Newberry Court House and was discharged 1 April 1815 at Ft. Hawkins, Georgia, not far from the home of his older brother David. He married 1803-01 Lettis Cockrell 16 February 1826 in Jasper County, Georgia. By 1850 they were living in Randolph County, Alabama on land Daniel had been given for his service in the War of 1812. Daniel and Lettis never had any children. ~~Lettis~~ Lettis died 6 November 1870 and a few months later (10 June 1871) Daniel married 1841-08 Frances Cook Baughn who celebrated her 30th birthday a week after their marriage. Reubin Alewine, the youngest son of 1762-01 John, moved to Jasper County, Georgia with his older brothers David, Elijah, and Daniel. He probably stayed in David's home until he married 1806-01 Priscilla Buchanan 5 April 1827. Reubin lived near his brother Daniel during most of his life, for a while in Fayette County, Georgia and then in Randolph County, Alabama. Children of Reubin and Priscilla were:

PART IV

DESCENDANTS OF 1774-01 THOMAS ALEWINE

CHAPTER 16 -- 1802-05 ELISHA ALEWINE AND HIS DESCENDANTS

Chapter 17 -- Other Descendants of 1774-01 Thomas Alewine

Chapter 16 -- 1802-05 Elisha Alewine and his Descendants

Elisha Alewine, oldest son of 1774-01 Thomas, married his first wife, 1804-01 Permiana Anderson about 1820. Permiana died before the 1830 census. Census records suggest that they may have had three or four children, but only one survived:

1827-01 James Alewine M b. ca 1827

Elisha had two children born during the 1830's, so it is assumed that he married a second wife during that time. However, the 1840 census indicates that no wife was living with him at ^{that} time, so it is presumed that she also died. The children by the second wife were:

1833-01 Burrell T. Alewine M b. ca 1833
 1837-11 Eliza Alewine F b. ca 1837

Elisha moved to Benton County, Alabama in the early 1840's, possibly following a serious disagreement with his father (so serious that Thomas left him out of his will). In Alabama Elisha married Sarah Gore 4 September 1842. At least one child was born of this marriage:

1843-08 Anaria Alewine F b. ca 1843

Sarah apparently died before 1850 (she did not appear in the census record with Elisha), and on 9 February 1854 Elisha married Martha Reid.

It is not known when Elisha died or if he outlived Martha and married more wives.

1827-01 James Alewine, son of Elisha and Permina, married Martha _____ and soon after the birth of their son 1849-02 Elisha, they moved to Van Zant County, Texas (probably in the part that later became Wood County). Soon after arriving in Texas, James received word that he was needed in South Carolina in connection with the settlement of the estate of his grandmother Elizabeth Anderson (Permina's mother). He died on this trip, although it is not known where or how he died. His half-brother later signed an affidavit saying that he was with James at the time of his death. It is known that James went to South Carolina and that for some reason he did not receive his share of the estate.

Martha and her son remained in Texas and on 16 February 1868, the son 1849-02 Elisha Alewine, married 1849-12 Susan Elizabeth Carpenter, also from Alabama. They had nine children:

1870-14 Martha E. Alewine	F	b.	ca 1870
1871-06 Mary L. Alewine	F	b.	ca 1871
1873-10 William E. Alewine	M	b. 24 Oct 1873
1875-07 Riley Alewine	M	b.	ca 1875
1877-08 Rosie E. Alewine	F	b.	ca 1877
1880-11 Thomas N. Alewine	M	b.	ca 1880
1882-09 Richard Alewine	M	b.	ca 1882
1884-06 Ethel Alewine	F	b.	ca 1884

Elisha lived in Limestone County from the late 1870's until his death around 1930.

1833-01 Burrell T. Alewine moved from Alabama to Texas, probably about 1855. The story he told was that on the trip through Mississippi he bought from horses. After he crossed the state and reached the Mississippi River, he found the "law" waiting to arrest him for stealing the horses. To avoid possible hanging as a horse thief, he jumped in the river and swam across.

He probably married soon after reaching Texas, although the name of his wife is not known. They had at least two children:

1856-02 Newton Alewine	M	b.	ca 1856
1864-02 Mary Alewine	F	b.	ca 1864

His wife died, probably soon after Mary's birth, and Burrell T. then married a widow, 1846-06 Adeline Adair.

Burrell T. and Adeline lived in Limestone County. Their children were: 1869-01 Fannie Alewine F b. ca 1869

1871-07 Jasper N. Alewine M b. ca 1871

1872-01 Burrell T. Alewine M b. ca 1872

1874-01 Henrietta Alewine F b. ca 1874

1877-01 Hezekiah Alewine M b. ca 1877

Chapter 17 -- Other Descendants of 1774-01 Thomas Alewine

1798-01 Jane Alewine, oldest daughter of Thomas, married David Hatton. He died in 1842 leaving children who presumably were from a previous marriage. Jane then married 1783-04 Peter Mosier. They lived in Newberry County until her death in September 1874.

1815-12 William H. Alewine was born 9 October 1815. He married 1816-01 Martha _____. They moved to Union County before 1850 and were living in Laurens County in 1860. In the estate settlement, ^{6 of 7} he received the original Alewine land that his father had owned, it appears that he never returned to Newberry County to live. He died 4 April 1884 in Laurens County, and Martha died 21 September 1894. Both are buried in th Sardis Methodist Church cemetery in Laurens County, South Carolina.

1819-01 Dorothy Alewine, a daughter of Thomas, married 1817-06 Benjamin Abrams, and her younger sister 1824-06 Caroline married 1816-05 Joseph Abrams, possibly Benjamin's brother. Both had children.

PART V

DESCENDANTS OF 1776-01 JACOB ALEWINE

Chapter 18 -- 1794-01 Isaac Alewine, 1809-13 David Alewine, and their Sisters

Chapter 19 -- 1798-04 Philip Alewine and his Descendants

Chapter 20 -- 1810-01 Margaret Alewine Lominack and her Descendants

Chapter 18 -- Isaac and David Alewine and their Sisters

1794-01 Isaac Alewine married 1796-06 Ferabee _____ AND MOVED to Lexington County in the 1820's. They never had any children, and for many years Isaac's widowed sister, 1797-03 Delilah Brown, lived in their home. Another sister, 1796-01 Nancy Alewine, moved to Marshall County, Alabama with her father Jacob. She married 1793-02 Thomas C. Wells 24 April 1838 in Marshall County.

Little is known of their brother 1809-03 David who also moved to Alabama and married Amanda Gore in 1855 in Benton County. 1808-02 Susan Alewine never married and lived for many years with her sister and brother-in-law, Margaret and Jacob Lomanack in Lexington County. In her later years Susan shared a house in Lexington County with her sister Delilah. This was probably the house where their brother Isaac had lived until his death 11 April 1876. Delilah died about 1880 and Susan died in 1882 or 1883.

Chapter 19 -- 1798-04 Philip Alewine and his Descendants

Philip Alewine moved to Lexington County in the 1820's and married 1799-03 Barbara _____. Their children were:

1826-05 Jacob Lemuel Alewine	M	b.	ca 1826
1828-01 JANE L. Alewine	F	b.	ca 1828
1830-02 Elizabeth Alewine	F	b.	ca 1830

1837-01 Chesley M. Alewine	M	b. ca 1837
1842-09 William H. Alewine	M	b. ca 1842

Barbara died December 1849, and by 1860 Philip was living in the home of his son Lemuel. Philip and his four sons enlisted in the Confederate Army and served together in the same company. Lemuel and Chesley were killed. It is supposed that Philip died soon after the war ended.

Lemuel's widow and children moved to Cleburne County, Alabama. ~~The~~ William H., youngest son was in Tennessee in 1868 and in Ellis County, Texas by 1910. Wesley remained in Lexington County until his death 10 December 1924.

Chapter 20 -- 1810-01 Margaret Alewine Lominack and her Descendants

Jacob's youngest daughter, 1810-01 Margaret E. "Peggy" Alewine married 1802-01 Jacob Lominack 25 February 1835. They lived in Lexington County and had four children:

1836-08 Martha Lominack	F	b. 28 Jan 1836
1838-01 Paul Lominack	M	b. 2 Dec 1838
1840-03 James Lominack	M	b. 18 Nov 1840
1843-12 Samuel Lominack	M	b. 25 Mar 1843

Paul and Samuel Lominack were killed in the Civil War. Martha married 1839-01 James A. Alewine, son of 1813-01 Isaac. Peggy died 19 May 1874, and Jacob moved to Alabama to live with a brother. He died 10 October 1883.

PART VI

DESCENDANTS OF 1777-01 MICHAEL ALEWINE

- Chapter 21 -- 1795-01 Abraham Alewine and his Descendants
- Chapter 22 -- 1797-02 Ephraim Alewine and his Descendants
- Chapter 23 -- 1808-01 Jacob Alewine and his Descendants
- Chapter 24 -- 1811-01 Michael Alewine and his Descendants

Summary

After the death of 1777-01 Michael Alewine, his widow Elizabeth Keller Alewine moved to Abbeville County with the children. Most of them and their descendants continued to live in the Abbeville, Iva, Anderson, Belton, Honea Path, and adjacent areas of Abbeville and Anderson Counties.

Abraham's oldest son, 1824-05 Joseph, moved with his family to Hart County, Georgia about 1880, and many of their descendants live in Hart and Madison counties. Ephraim's oldest son, 1820-01 Abraham, moved to Stewart County, Georgia where he raised a large family. 1811-01 Michael died in 1845, and some twenty years later his widow, 1816-03 Sarah Crowther Alewine, moved to Arkansas with her children and grandchildren. The children of 1808-01 Jacob Alewine (mostly daughters) remained in the abbeville-Anderson area, except for his son Michael, who married his first cousin Emeline, daughter of Michael and Sarah. They moved to Arkansas with the rest of Sarah's family.
